Advent Lutheran Church
Volunteer Service Description

Worship Reader

Task

- Duties include reading the designated lessons for the worship service.
- Readers will receive the lessons via email the week prior to their scheduled reading.
- Readers should read through the lesson prior to the service and practice any unknown words and any inflection that helps with the understanding and interest in the reading.

Impact

1. Worship Readers are an integral part of the worship service and are an important part of sharing the Word.
2. Your service will provide a valuable understanding of the Word.
3. Your service will provide a valuable and recognizable component of the worship service.
4. Your service will provide Advent Lutheran Church with responsible leadership and support the pastor and the congregation during the worship service.

Time frame

1. The position is shared between interested members of the congregation and continues for as long as a member is willing to be a reader.
2. The time involved is usually less than 10 -20 minutes of preparation the week before the reading and readers usually rotate in every 6 to 8 weeks.

Check-ins

The Worship Committee or Pastor will arrange the schedule and notify readers of their assignments. The office manager will email the assigned readings during the week prior.

Testimonials

Warren Blair, Worship Reader - Serving as a Worship Reader allows me to provide support to the pastor and members with the Word during the worship service.
Being a Worship Reader is an important aspect of the worship service. The members appreciate the reader for helping them better understand the Word.